

About the show...

Campus Ladies follows Joan & Barri, two middle-aged best friends who decide it's better to be a freshman at 40 than unhappy housewives forever. Ditching the suburban life of minivans and malls for keg stands and co-ed dorms, Joan and Barri enroll in school in search of the wild college years they missed the first time around. Throughout the first season of ten half-hour episodes, the co-eds glided through their freshman years at the fictional University of the Midwest (UMW) with wild naivet , cheerful optimism, and reckless abandon.

Now sophomores, Joan and Barri are still willing to try anything, and with a lineup of guest stars all season long, they've never had better help. The antics only get funnier and more outrageous with high-wattage guest stars Megan Mullally, Jason Alexander, Sean Hayes, Penny Marshall, Janeane Garofalo, Mo'Nique, Jane Lynch, and many more!

Campus Ladies is based on characters created by comedienne Carrie Aizley (Joan) and Christen Sussin (Barri) while performing with the famous comedy troupe, The Groundlings.

The series is executive produced by Cheryl Hines (Curb Your Enthusiasm), Carrie Aizley, Christen Sussin, Paul Young, Peter Principato and co-executive producer E. Brian Dobbins of Principato-Young Entertainment (Reno 911).
